

CARTM shipped 290.3 tons of solid waste to the landfill in 2011—3% less than in 2010.

North County citizens and visitors diverted 809.6 tons of material from the landfill in 2011 for recycling at CARTM—a 15% increase over 2010 (excluding wood and construction debris which CARTM subcontracted in 2010).

Message from the Director

When I come to work each day I am reminded why this community is so unique—people who live here put high value on how they live and what kind of community they want to help build. When I review the statistics from 2011, I see that zero waste is no longer a lofty idea—our community is now putting that into action.

Our staff notices those who make special efforts to recycle everything they can—we call them our Zero Heroes. In June we'll be launching a special recognition program for these folks who walk their talk and help inspire the rest of us to follow suit.

With the summer season upon us, we'll be seeing hundreds of new faces and those people will have an eye on our community. Let's all continue to take actions that model a community that understands "what goes around comes around."

You may have noticed our new sign as you exit CARTM. It shares this sentiment and underscores our "thanks for coming around."
